GOODS	DOCUMENTS REQUIRED	CUSTOMS PRESCRIPTIONS	REMARKS
Removal goods	 For customs clearance of personal belongings, the following documents are required: Clear copy of the shipper's passport. List of items which the client will take to the Netherlands (inventory list) Copy of the registration at town/city hall where the shipper will live (this document has to mention the country the shipper is moving from). When client does not have his town/city hall registration yet, client may also submit a proof of deregistration from the country of origin. Please also supply one of the following documents: Copy of a work contract or declaration from the employer confirming the period of working for them abroad and the fact that the client will now be working for them in the Netherlands as from (date), OR Copy of a rental agreement or purchase contract of the residence in the Netherlands. This may not be older than 6 months. 	 Duty free entry, provided: You lived outside the European Union for at least 12 months prior to leaving the country of departure and you will be living in the Netherlands. You are transporting household goods belonging to your residence. You have owned and used your personal belongings for at least 6 month prior to your removal to the Netherlands. You are importing your personal belongings within 12 months after your date of arrival in the Netherlands. You will be using your personal belongings again and will not lend or rent them out, pawn or sell them for a period of 12 months after customs cleared your personal belongings to enter the Netherlands. 	All containers arriving in the Port of Rotterdam with an excessive concentration of gas will be taken out from the logistic transport chain (Methyl bromide is mostly used toxic gas). According to the Ministry one may expect delays running up to several months before a fumigated container will be released to the consignee. Obviously high costs will be involved if a container has an excessive concentration of gas.
Diplomats removals	Diplomatic passport.	 Duty free entry, provided that: Not having the Dutch nationality. Not permanently resident in the Netherlands.
